

B.A. Economics Program Outcomes

- 1. Students will understand and demonstrate core micro-economic terms, concepts and theories.
- 2. Students will be able to differentiate between Positive and Normative statements.
- 3. Students will be able to analyze data to solve complex economic problems.
- 4. Students will understand general economic concepts (Supply and demand, comparative advantage, opportunity cost, etc)
- 5. Students will be able to identify key macroeconomics indicators, and measures of economic change, growth and development.
- 6. Students will be able to formulate and defend a monetary or fiscal strategy that would produce desired outcomes.

B.A. Economics Program Specific outcomes

- 1. Knowledge of Economic System : An ability to understand economic theories and functioning of basic microeconomic and macroeconomic systems.
- 2. Statistical and Mathematical skills : Acquaint with collection, Organization, tabulation and analysis of empirical data.
- 3. Students will be able to forecast the future course of changes and development through their Knowledge and Programmes set by the governments.
- 4. It helps to understand the students the functioning of a complicated modern economic system.
- 5. It also helps to bring stability in price level and analysis fluctuations in business activities.
- 6. Perspectives on Indian Economy : Acquaint with basic issues on Indian Economy and learn the basic concept of monetary and financial marketing and markets. This course review major trends in economic indicators and policy debates in India in the Post-Independent period.

ECONOMICS

Course Outcome:

B.A. 1st and 2nd Semester: (MICRO – ECONOMICS)

1. To familiarize the students with the basic concept of microeconomics.
2. To make students understand the demand and supply analysis in business applications.
3. To familiarize students with the production and cost structure under different stages of production.
4. To make students understand and learn how consumers make decision, how firms interact in different market structures and make price, output decision.
5. It will help students in understanding the behavior of individuals and small organizations in making decisions on the allocation of limited resources.

B.A. 3rd and 4th Semester : (MACRO – ECONOMICS)

1. Macro economics helps the students to understand how a economy is moving as a whole.
2. It helps the students to study a variety of economy – wide phenomena is thoroughly examined such as inflation, price, level, rate of growth, national income, gross domestic product and changes in unemployment.
3. It helps students to understand the functioning of a complicated modern economic system.
4. It helps students to achieve the goal of economic growth, a higher GDP level and higher level of employment.
5. It helps students to learn how national income is calculated, to understand the concept of multiplier effect in an economy.
6. It helps students to study the aggregates and to provide overall idea about national economic policies and its implications.

B.A. 5th and 6th Semester : (INDIAN ECONOMY)

1. To help students to appreciate the working of the Indian economy, its key drivers on going challenges and understand the policy options to tackle these challenges.
2. Students will be able to understand government policies and programs.
3. It helps in developing understanding of the students related to different sectors of the economy.
4. Students will be able to understand how planning and infrastructure support can develop an economy.

5. After studying the structure aspects of Indian Economy, students will be exposed to economic reforms India and problems of Indian Economy.
6. It helps students to learn develop ideas of the basic characteristics of Indian Economy, its potential on natural resources.

B.A. 2nd Semester (Business Economics)

1. The objectives of this course is to impart the knowledge of economics as a subject and its importance in business.
2. It helps the student to understand the causes and Consequences of different market condition.
3. It helps to understand the students the concept of cost, nature of production and its relationship to business operations.
4. It helps the students to apply decision support tools to business decision making.
5. It helps the students to understand how to integrate the concept of price and output decision of firm under various market structure.
